The Public School Question.
Mr. ELLISON.—My attention has been called to an editorial in the Hawaiian Gazette of the 25th, which purports to be a review of a report on common schools adopted by the Hawaiian Evangelical Association, at its recent meeting in Honolulu. A frank and honorable review of that report, by any member of the Board of Education, is just by the article that would have been particularly gratifying to a large body of Protestants in these islands. Instead of such a review, however—which the report fairly challenged—we have a most inconclusive series of misstatements, evasions and special pleadings, which, instead of convincing one that though several charges in the report were based on insufficient grounds or downright errors as the review asserts, leave at least no convictions that the statements put forth are irrefragably true.

The charge, however—regarding the sale of certain school houses—is to be excepted from the imputation of evasion. Doubtless those who certified the facts upon which that item of the report was based, will have a word to say in reply to the Board's flat denial.

In what may be replied to the review, otherwise, its own order of arrangement will be followed.

1. The report charges it as one of the causes of dissatisfaction with the present management of our educational interests and of solicitude for the property of the common schools, that to provide the way for the new system of public education, the former school laws were repealed, and the office of Inspector General created—giving to the person filling it "EXCLUSIVE POWER TO SELECT, REMOVE OR REVOKE ALL THE TEACHERS OF ALL THE SCHOOLS"—i.e. leaving out entirely parental wishes as unworthy a moment's consideration—in fact as of no more account in conducting the educational interests of the nation, than would have been the voice of South Carolina slaves in Southern education five years ago.

This is the simple damaging fact which the report sets down against the Board. And to this, the review directs this reply—For the conception [of this office] the Board of Education are not responsible! The report alleges a measure of despotism worthy of despotic Spain and unspcakably degrading to the Hawaiian people, and the Board says, it is not chargeable with the office that executes its behests! No marvel that the review styles the report a "singular and entirely unwelcome" and that the Board would have something to say in reply to the assembled Evangelical Protestantism of these islands opened its mouth to take exception to the legislative creation of so useful and proper an office as that of the Inspector General of the Schools. But with an official review opening in this manner, with mature deliberation too, what are we not to expect? The review, however, in its manner of attacking the Board, is not only unwelcome, but it is also unwelcome to the Board. The Board is not responsible for the report, but it is responsible for the review. The Board is not responsible for the report, but it is responsible for the review. The Board is not responsible for the report, but it is responsible for the review.
